Aion Stats Explanation

All the different character classes in Aion have their own strengths and weaknesses which can be used for your own advantage. The character stats are divided up into primary and secondary stats.

On your Profile (Default: "P") you can take a look at your stats. In the first part your primary stats like HP, MP etc. are shown which are based on your character. In the second part your secondary stats like Physical Def, Evasion etc. are shown which are based on your equipment. Green values show that these stats have bonuses from different armor parts or weapons.

More detailed descriptions especially for each class can be found in our Aion Guide Section.
