Luminary Online Rise of the Goonzu

Luminary Rise of the GoonZu is one of the free Free2Play Fantasy Anime MMORPG which contains elements of the real economic and political systems, such as Elections and the presence of an exchange. As a player, you can choose between four pre-created but different characters with the usual attributes and mechanics such as combat, quests, skills and reading books to raise their level. Your character has more than 20 skills, spells, incantations and much more.

Furthermore, Luminary Online offers you the opportunity to act in stocks, commodities and real estate. In addition, you can produce goods or elect the Head of the server (the GoonZu) - as well as local Chairpersons.

You can accept quests from NPCs and complete them to get a lot of rewards. You can keep your own pets and ride and raise Summons as allies in battle. Create your own items and sell them to other players. By stock trading and commissions for various facilities you can give your character, respect and economic prosperity and wealth. Also the possibility to increase the image of the city, you should exercise, since you might be a part in subsequent elections for mayor or even the Goonzu, the ruler of the server. A series of dungeons are waiting for you to compete with the monsters and to find valuable treasure in these caves.
